

INITIAL LANGUAGE EVALUATION REPORT

Marie JEUNEHOMME

Renewal — Previous Course Summary

| Candidate Profile

Learner has concentrated on speaking practice in coaching sessions, discussing management situations and her role as regional director of legal for a number of countries. She averages two sessions a month, which is an acceptable pace for her overall level. She has reached B2++/C1- by end of course. Some slower, targeted attention to nuance would be an excellent target for a future contract at her current maintenance pace.

| Strengths

Very quick and able in general and business English; written contract exercises are uniformly excellent demonstrating regular exposure to contracts in English; fast thinker and talker; strong oral communication and meeting/presentation skills attained.

| Areas for Improvement

Intonation could use some fine-tuning; nuance in writing and orally needs further development; slower, targeted attention to nuance recommended as a future target.

Learning Objectives
